COMMITTED SUICIDE

Young Man's Body Found Hanging in Barn at Home Near Mayslick

Major Williams, son of Squire C. W. Williams, committed suicide this morning at his home near Mayslick.

He was the youngest son of the family, and was often the cause, the favorite.

There is no known cause why the young man should take his life.

He had a good home and pleasant surroundings.

He was told to feed the stock in the barn. After being absent for a considerable time, not having come to his breakfast, a search was made and a dead body found hanging by a halter in the barn.

THE WALL WILL CASE

The Jury Decided for Plaintiff—Will Be Again Appealed

In the Mason Circuit Court the Jury in the case of Dimmitt v. Wall decided the paper in contest not to be the will of Mrs. E. A. Wall. This cause was tried in 1901 and a similar verdict was rendered.

On appeal to the Court of Appeals, that Court reversed the verdict of the Jury, stating that there was no evidence to sustain that verdict.

In 1904 it was again tried, and the Jury was unable to agree.

The propounders of the will will again take the case to the Court of Appeals.

The evidence has varied but little at the trials.

Measrs. Sallee & Slattery and William D. Cochran represented Mrs. Dimmitt, and Hon. E. L. Worthington and Judge Thomas R. Phister represented Dr. Wall et al.

There were twelve additions to the Third Street Methodist Church yesterday.

Mrs. William Britten entertained at luncheon Friday in honor of a few guests. Among those present were Mrs. Ross of Newport and daughter, Mrs. Harmeyer of Madisonville, O., and Mrs. I. S. Kay, formerly of this city, and Mrs. James Wilson of Lexington.

WILL CONTEST

Claimed Late S. N. Meyer's Was Probated in Wrong Court

On last County Court Day a writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Simon N. Meyer was probated.

This document was written at Dayton, O., where Mr. Meyer resided several years before his death.

In it he devised all his personal property to his wife, America Meyer.

It was then thought that all of Mr. Meyer's relatives were dead, and as he died childless this writing in that event would make no difference in the case, but it turns out that a near relative, Conrad Meyer, is living, and as next of kin he has entered a motion in the Mason County Court to set aside the order of probate, upon the ground that the testator, being at the time of his death a non-resident of Kentucky, the Court had no jurisdiction to probate the paper, and that the place for probate is Dayton, O.

The estate is estimated at $60,000.

Messrs. W. D. Cunningham and Allan D. Cole represent Conrad Meyer, heir at law.

HAIL COLUMBIA, HAPPY LAND!

Fleming County Man Wants to Hornswoggle the L. and N.

The whoppingest suit ever filed in Flemingburg was brought in the County Court Saturday when Auditor's Agent B. S. Grannis filed a petition asking that the L. and N. Railroad be compelled to list upwards of $35,000,000 worth of property for taxes alleged to be due the state of Kentucky for five years past.

The taxes would amount to something like $350,000.

Mr. Grannis claims that no report of the franchise valuation has been made to Fleming county; that she is entitled to her part of it, and that he presumes that it has never been certified to the State Board of Valuation.

The action is based on a decision of the Court of Appeals in a case taken up from Mason county, giving any County Auditor's Agent the right to so sue, and there is much interest among the legal fraternity as to what the outcome will be—and on the part of Mr. Grannis as to what the "income" will be.

Charles Ashcraft, formerly of Mt. Olivet, was married recently at Abordoon, Wash., to Miss Zella Anatin.

Miss Viola Armstrong, who played the part of "Mrs. Hopsy Putnam" in Quincy Adams Sawyer at the Opera-house Friday night, fainted while in her dressing room during the progress of the play. She had been ill with grip for the past week. She was attended by Dr. J. H. Samuel, and, after being revived, pluckily went on the stage and played her part quite admirably. Another member of the company, Miss Clara Coleman, one of the original Coleman sisters, is an old friend of Colonel George S. Rosser and during her stay in the city paid a visit to that genial gentleman.

Ray's Cough Syrup is guaranteed to cure.

Mr. John Bradford of Lexington street is on the sick list.

Never before have we sold as many suits and overcoats during the month of February as we have in this February. It is only due to this: "THE PUBLIC HAS FAITH IN WHAT WE TELL IT." We made up our mind to close out our winter goods at prices that we knew that intelligent people would take advantage of. Consequently hundreds of our friends bought suits and overcoats at prices that we cannot replace them for. Many choice suit and overcoats are still on our counters. We will continue the sale as long as any are left. "DON'T YOU GET LEFT."

We do not need to dwell on the "bestness" of these Corsets—only worthy, tried sorts find entrance to our stock. The lot includes the following—

No. 1—Coutil, medium bust, long dip hips, flat abdomen, real whalebone, double supporters in front, $1 formerly $1.50.

No. 2—Coutil, low bust, long pointed hips, lace and ribbon trimmed top, for full figures, $1.50 formerly $2.

President Hawkins

Was to Get a "Divvy" Out of the Burley Tobacco Growers Deal

THE HONEST GROWER CUT. Least partly out of the bag.

ident Hawkins of the Burley Association has assured the public that he was working for the good of the farmers alone;

But facts that have come to light since the failure of the deal, show that he was working the farmers for the good of Hawkins; and Colonel Sam Stairs will please stand up and take notice!

Hanging over the Burley Tobacco Growers Association since last December has been a contract signed in New York between President W. H. Hawkins of the Association and Joseph Huffaker, a "promoter" of Louisville.

Under this contract the Association was to get 65% of the profits.

President W. H. Hawkins and Huffaker were to get 10%, and the financial institutions from which the Melvor people were to secure the loan were to get 25%.

At a heated session in a New York hotel while the negotiations were on there, Hawkins it is declared fell on his knees before Huffaker and begged him to release the Association from the contract, but Huffaker refused.

Some of the farmers from Kentucky, who had been in session with Stuart when Hawkins arrived, were so incensed when they heard of the affair that they made threats, and Huffaker left at midnight for Louisville.

And there's more to come!

ONE of the troubles that befell the recent Burley Growers Trust was the large number of its "promoters" who grow tobacco with their mouths.

THOUSANDS of Louisville's good people applauded the course of Editor KNOTT, and denounced the verdict which fined him $500 for exposing crime; but how many of them will "chip in" and help pay this unjust fine?

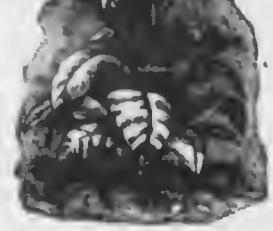

THERE'S yet hope for Kentucky! The Breathitt County Grand Jury has kindly consented not to return an indictment for murder against Judge HARGIS, Democratic State Central Committeeman, until the Court of Appeals gives it authority to do so.

IF the Kentucky Legislature wants to do something that will "do the greatest good to the greatest number," it will at its next session take the necessary steps to choke the life out of the Kentucky-Tennessee Insurance Trust. This concern costs the people of this state more money in a month than the Standard Oil Trust does in a year.

THE "Kentucky State Conference of Charities and Corrections" has just closed its sessions in Covington, adjourning to meet in Maysville some time in May next. I don't know just what the K. S. C. of C. and C. is, or who it is; but come right along and bring your knittin'. Maysville will be glad to see you, name and all; and if you have any pretty girls in the gang, here's to 'em.

HON. JAMES N. KENOE has the Editor's thanks for valuable state papers.

THAT was an "awful" liberal second lot of capitalists that ARCHIBALD STUART unearthed in New York after the first lot declined to finance the Burley Growers deal.

The first lot offered—the Growers claimed—to whack up $9,500,000 against $500,000 to be "subscribed" by Growers big and little, owners or tenants, good or bad,—and nothing said about paying it. In addition, the financiers wanted the Growers to "sign" over to them some 70 or 80% of the entire Burley crop,—the "signs" to be signed by probably fifteen or twenty thousand different Growers, some good for thousands of dollars, some good for nothing. On its face, the proposition was not such as would appeal to financial concerns that were handling other people's money; and if the Directors of one of Maysville's Building Associations should make a loan on such security, they would be promptly superseded at the next election.

The talk about the Tobacco Trust, Standard Oil and such like defeating the "deal" is rot, pure and simple, and is made for effect; if not, why didn't anti-Trust Tom LAWSON and anti-Trust J. EDWARD ADDICKS finance the Association as Mr. STUART announced that they would? And if the security offered to the first lot of capitalists was ample, why did the "Trust Busters" demand an additional $250,000 in cash from the Growers, and why was it that the so-called Cincinnati end of the deal refused to put up the additional quarter million dollars?

It looks like the Growers had been "worked" by parties outside the Trust: and THE LEDGER predicts that in less than six months some of the leaders in the late movement will be cursed as roundly and as justly as the Czar of all the Russias. Paste this in your hat!

Dyspepsia of Women

ABSOLUTELY NEEDLESS AGONY

Caused by Uterine Disorders and Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by a derangement of the female organism, and which, while it causes a disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar uterine-tonic effects also.

As proof of this theory we call attention to the case of Mrs. Maggie Wright, Brooklyn, N. Y., who was completely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after everything else had failed. She writes: "For two years I suffered with dyspepsia which so degenerated my entire system that I was unable to attend to my daily duties. I felt weak and nervous, and nothing that I ate tasted good and it caused a disturbance in my stomach. I tried different dyspepsia cures, but nothing seemed to help me. I was advised to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and was happily surprised to find that it acted like a fine tonic, and in a few days I began to enjoy and properly digest my food. My recovery was rapid, and in five weeks I was a well woman. I have recommended it to many suffering women." No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unequalled endorsement, or has such a record of cures of female troubles, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A TEXAS LETTER

Recalls an Occurrence Here of the Long Ago

ARLINGTON, TEXAS, Feb. 10th, 1905. I suppose all the doctors that waited on me in the early 70's are dead now except the youngest. I have had some ups and downs in the world since I left Maysville in '77. Texas is a large state. I have been farming here for twenty years, raising cotton, corn and feed stuff. My family is all grown—two boys and two girls. My youngest will soon be 18. My oldest girl is married. This has been the coldest winter in six years. The thermometer was below zero last Sunday, the first time in six years. That is getting pretty cold for the sunny South. JOHN GIBBONS.

The foregoing is an extract from a letter addressed to a citizen of this place by a planter in Texas who lived—and almost died—in Maysville thirty years ago.

The Reporter of THE LEADER, then first beginning his newspaper career on the old Maysville Eagle, remembers the incident as if it were but yesterday, and then, as now, was promptly on the ground to "scoop" in the details.

One morning about 12 o'clock a young fellow, just from Kansas and suffering from Kansas chills, bought, as he supposed, a quarter's worth of quinine and swallowed the entire quantity at once, sinking almost immediately into a profound stupor.

A physician was called, who recognized the symptoms as those of poisoning by morphine.

The excitement on East Second street was intense, and anxious groups of citizens filled the space in front of the house, and the cry passed from lip to lip, "The doctors say he is dying."

A light to strike out of the Omnibus Public Building Bill the provision for an appropriation for a Public Building at Cynthiana is attracting attention, the objection being that the town is too small to justify the Government in erecting a Public Building there. The average amount of fixed charges for a Public Building is $3,000 and it is pointed out that this is several times the amount for which suitable Postoffice quarters can be rented at Cynthiana, to say nothing of the original cost of constructing a building there.

The towboat Charles Brown passed down yesterday loose. She was making for Cincinnati.

The Ripley ferryboat, Proctor K. Smiley, came up Saturday night in quest of roustabouts to man the Joe Williams.

THE VOTE WAS A TIE

Congressman Kehoe's Tobacco Trust Investigation Hangs Fire

In the House Judiciary Committee Saturday Representative Smith called up the Kehoe Tobacco Trust resolution, and but for the absence of one Democratic member it would have been favorably reported to the House.

The vote was a tie, and as a compromise it was decided that Mr. Smith should confer with the Attorney General, and if that official offers no objections the resolution will be favorably reported.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING?
KNOCKING?

No, we have gotten rid of the larger number of chronic kickers that used to infest our town and retard its progress. People are taking a more cheerful view, a more hopeful view of the future of Maysville. And let me say that the future of Maysville is just what the citizens of Maysville choose to make it. If you are narrow, niggardly and non-progressive, Maysville will be narrow and non-progressive. If you are energetic, progressive and enterprising, Maysville will grow and prosper. At the beginning of the spring-time let the merchants, manufacturers and the citizens in general determine to make the year of 1905 mark a great increase in the business activity, growth and development of our industries than any other year in the history of our home town. To this end get wide awake. Buy some of the cheap property which I have for sale, improve it and you will reap your reward in the increase of its salable value and add to the value of every other property in the City of Maysville. Get busy. JOHN DULEY, Real Estate.

John C. Pecor, Druggist, Offers the People of Maysville Vinol, a Body-Building, Strengthening and Healing Medicine.

We have a warranted cure for all thin, tired, debilitated, nervous people. It is Vinol, the most delicious and valuable preparation of cod liver oil ever discovered. Vinol tones up the digestive organs, cures all stomach troubles, makes rich, red blood, creates strength, and builds up firm, healthy flesh.

Mr. Frank Graves, a lawyer of Winoski, Vt., writes: "Permit me to say a word indorsing the peerless merits of your cod liver oil preparation, Vinol. I was in very poor health when I bought my first bottle of Vinol, and I wish every sufferer could see what it has done for me. It brought back my appetite, put flesh on my bones, strengthened my nervous system and toned up my whole physical condition. Vinol simply did wonders for me."

As we have so often stated in these columns, Vinol is the greatest strength creator known to medicine, as we do not believe there is a person in this vicinity but what Vinol will benefit at this season of the year; it never fails to make the weak strong and the sick well.

Vinol is just as valuable for all hacking coughs, chronic colds, throat and bronchial troubles, and we return money if it fails. JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

THIRD STREET M. E. CHURCH.

We give a gist of the first of a series of sermons by Rev. M. A. Banker at the Third Street M. E. Church, delivered last evening. The text was from John 14:6—"I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

"The hopes of the world cluster around the personality of the Christ. We marvel at the commands given to their subordinates by the great Generals of the world. Their power was the embodied voice of what they represented. But Jesus came down from heaven the embodied thought of God to dying men, that he might, through the mysterious power of divinity in human shape, lift the veil of the future."

"Beecher once said, 'Christ is to the Christian what the telescope is to the astronomer.' God might have sent an angel from heaven to bear the precious message of salvation to a waiting world, but the message would not have been intelligible. God had never left himself without a witness in the world, but only a few understood, but he stoops from heaven in the form of his son in sinful flesh, and makes the most sublime declaration that was ever made, 'I am the way, the truth and the life.'"

"God is very human; heaven is very human, for the prints all along the pathway up to the very gates, are human. We cannot conceive of ever coming to a place that will contradict the primary lessons we have learned in this life. The life we live here we shall there. In the marvelous conception of John in speaking of the measurements of the heavenly city, he says, 'According to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.' Here the declaration is that manhood measures angelhood. Paul speaks of the family on earth and in heaven as though there were an intimate connection between the two. Manhood is the unity of the measurement not only here, but there."

"All the truth necessary to salvation was incarnated in Jesus Christ. The moment we begin to speculate, argue, or question, we take these weighty matters of truth right out of the Master's hands. God has allowed many a blasphemy in old creeds to stand to show how vain are the speculations of men. Christ is a satisfying portion."

"Jesus is in the most real and undebatable sense the life of the immortal part of man. If we live for the imperishable things of truth and righteousness, these things are real to us, a part of us. The principle of life in Jesus Christ, which is also written all over the parchment of the starry heavens and on the fleshly tablets of our hearts, is the principle of eternal waking, of increasing intelligence, of purer devotion, of more exalted service."

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The morning service yesterday was conducted by the Pastor, Rev. H. T. Musselman, at which there were two additions.

Owing to the illness of Mr. Musselman there was no preaching at night.

A class of seven will be baptized next Sunday.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The splendid series of sermons by President Burris A. Jenkins continue to interest the immense congregations that assemble to hear him. By far the largest audience of the week was that of last evening, when the auditorium and gallery were crowded and many were compelled to stand throughout the service.

Prof. Jenkins's discourse, touching the theme of the undeveloped power in every human soul, was magnificent in its word painting. Certainly no Preacher has stood before the Maysville people in a long time whose sermons have made the deep impression that have those of Mr. Jenkins in the past week.

There were six additions to the Church yesterday, making eleven so far.

The usual afternoon service will be held today at 3 o'clock, followed by preaching at 7:30. The subject for tonight's sermon will be "The Unpardonable Sin."

Baptism will follow the service Wednesday evening.

The clean, rich nerve-force that was behind the health and happiness of thousands upon thousands is literally burning itself up like the dry wick of an empty lamp. It is the "Strenuous Life," with a vengeance.

Can men who go to their work in the morning tired and with lax spirits give to their own affairs the electric touch of confidence and power upon which success depends?

Can mothers worn out and nervous, plodding dully or ill-tempered through the routine of homekeeping, bring into the family life that precious spirit of helpfulness and happiness without which the word "home" seems a mockery?

When you feel exhausted—when you grow tired sooner than you should—when you lose patience with the irritating cares of daily life—when you feel discouraged—when you feel that your hopes and ambitions are not as high as they used to be—when you spend a sleepless night—when you get up almost as weary as when you went to bed—when you are worried.

These are all signs that your nerve forces are burning low.

Neglect the nerves and they will make you feel this neglect in many ways, they control all of the organs of the body and must be kept healthy and strong to do their work properly,—tired nerves cannot keep the organs of the body, working in that harmony which is essential to real health.

This is why Paine's Celery Compound is able to bring health in so many different forms. Paine's Celery Compound feeds and nourishes the nerves. It makes new Nerve Force. It makes pure, rich blood, a clean active liver, a stomach that acts quietly and strongly upon all the food that is given to it, bowels that throw away promptly and surely all the ashes from life's engine room.

It makes the heart beat true and evenly, it makes the brain clear and vigorous.

The Nerve Force does this all, and Paine's Celery Compound makes the Nerve Force.

Rest of all it makes that buoyant life-spirit, the thrill of health, that is the secret of happiness and the keynote of individual success.

Without Nerve Force there can be no health at all—no success—no joy in living.

John S. Long's case is simply one of thousands upon thousands. An average case and an object lesson to the average person.

"For nervousness and stomach troubles Paine's Celery Compound is the medicine. I was almost a physical wreck when I commenced to use Paine's Celery Compound, and now I am as healthy as any man in the world, and I owe it all to Paine's Celery Compound. The first bottle I took helped me wonderfully, and by the time the second was used I was a well man, and I can cheerfully recommend it to any one as being the best medicine I have ever used."

—John S. Long, Ballard, Wash.

Try Paine's Celery Compound to-day. It braces you up at once.

Take two days' treatment. See how much better you feel. See how much more easily the trials roll away.

For over 18 years Paine's Celery Compound has been the most universally used nerve vitalizer and tonic in the world.

Remember this—Paine's Celery Compound is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians this country has ever known, Prof. E. E. Phelps, of Dartmouth University. All reputable druggists recommend and sell Paine's Celery Compound.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it's talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are justly careful not to let a bum job get out our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

HAVE THE DAY'S PRINTING HOUSE PRINT IT.

HON. JAMES N. KEHOE

What a Washington Correspondent Has to Say of Him

Inspeking of Hon. J. N. Kehoe, J. D. Wakefield, Washington, D. C., correspondent of The Louisville Times, says—

"Representative James N. Kehoe of the Ninth Kentucky District, whose term will expire on March 4th, will on March 6th engage in the banking business at Maysville. He will be the Cashier and part owner of the stock of the Mitchell, Finch & Co. banking house. On February 25th the Directors will elect Mr. Kehoe formally. The capital stock has been doubled and a large percentage of it has been sold to the Congressman. The stock is worth $120."

"Mr. Kehoe retires from politics and steps right out of Congress into the Bank. He will leave here on inauguration day to take up his new duties. The Ninth District member will be missed in the Kentucky delegation. His present fight for the tobacco growers of his District and the state is a notable public service and is one that has made him a friend of the growers and independent tobacco men throughout the country."

Mrs. M. H. Davis of Mayslick, accompanied by Mrs. William Hukill and Miss Nancy Ewalt of Paris, will leave tomorrow for a month's visit to New Orleans.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Today so you I am free from all that this morning. You can see this in behalf of suffering humanity."

ANNUAL SALE, TEN MILLION BOXES

SAY!

You people who have been buying river coal all winter, have you noticed your pile lately? It's going down mighty fast, isn't it? Well, now, that is caused by the ice in it melting. In our coal you don't get any of that. You get nothing but nice, clean coal arriving from the mines most every day. Then our coal is worth a trial, isn't it? Call up 69 and we will tell you more about it. Remember, we also handle Salt, Sand and Baled Hay.

Yours truly,

Yesterday morning Mr. John Loftus was driving East on Third street when his horse frightened at the streetcars and ran off. In turning down Limestone street the buggy upset, Mr. Loftus was thrown out and the top torn loose. In making the turn into Second street the running gear was left astride a file plug, while the horse continued its flight and was caught farther down the street. Mr. Loftus escaped serious injury, but he is minus a buggy.
